

OFFSET UNIT

Application:

Offset Units are used in locations where there is not enough room to allow the Motor End of the system to extend to the standard requirement of 32 inches beyond the edge of the pool. Custom applications may require job-site adaptations or modifications. Please consult your Cover-Pools representative for assistance.

Note: Pulley placement may be different than shown depending on cover application.

